NI 8-25

1

2

3

5

6

8

10

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

ABARO & KEAGY ATTORNEYS AT LAW #16-5-8-24

(SPACE BELOW FOR FILING STAMP ONLY)

ATTORNEYS AT LAW 304 KALMA STREET SAN DIESO, CALIFORNIA 93101 230-3861

AUG 22 1978

Attorneys for Plaintiff

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

GREMLIN INDUSTIRES, a Delaware Corporation,

Plaintiff

VS.

CIRCLE INTERNATIONAL CO., INC., etc. et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. 416704

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR CHANGE OF VENUE

Date: August 24, 1978 Time: 1:30 p.m. Place: Department 4

Plaintiff, GREMLIN INDISTRIES, submits the following Points and Authorities in Opposition to Defendant's, CIRCLE INTERNATIONAL COMPANY, Motion for Change of Venue:

1. A CORPORATION OR ASSOCIATION MAY BE SUED IN THE COUNTY WHERE THE CONTRACT WAS MADE OR WAS TO BE PERFORMED, OR THE COUNTY WHERE THE OBLIGATION OR LIABILITY AROSE, OR THE COUNTY WHERE THE BREACH OCCURRED, OR WHERE THE PRINCIPAL PLACE OF BUSINESS OF THE CORPORATION IS SITUATED.

Plaintiff's action against the Defendant, CIRCLE INTERNATIONAL CO., is grounded upon an oral contract for the purchase and sale of goods. In cases of oral contracts where the party being sued is a corporation, venue is proper where the contract is made or is to be performed. As appears

3

から大人の人は、日本の日の日本をあるるというと

するから、おおいのなからいかするいからできるとなっていることでは、これでは、

1

2

more particularly from the Plaintiff's complaint herein and the counter declarations filed by Plaintiff herein, venue is proper in San Diego County on two bases: (1) that the contract was made in San Diego and (2) that Defendant's obligations under said contract were to be performed in San Diego.

Although it is true, as stated in Defendants' Points and Authorities, that the Court must inquire into the nature of the action in determining whether the venue chosen by the Plaintiff in a given action is proper, the Court is not merely limited to the allegations contained in the complaint but may also review those evidentiary matters set forth in any counter declaration filed by the Plaintiff which would amplify the allegations contained in the complaint. As the Court stated in the case of Pacific Airlines, Inc. v. Superior Court, (1965) 231 Cal.App.2d, 587, at page 590:

The true rule is that in venue matters, we look at the complaint in determining the nature of the action (citation omitted), where, as in our case, there is no counter affidavit by plaintiff amplifying his complaint.

It is further stated in 2 Witkin Cal. Procedure (2d ed.) Section 542 at page 1362:

If the complaint alone does not meet the factual challenge of the defendant's affidavit, it may be necessary for the plaintiff to make an additional showing to sustain venue. His right to do it by counter affidavits has long been recognized. As the Court observed in Mills v. Dickson (1933) 129 CA 728, 732, 19 P. 2d 278 . . . Being a collateral [motion for change of venue] the proper means for disposing of a motion is by affidavit and counter affidavit and the pleader should not be compelled to anticipate a possible motion and embody allegations in his complaint that fulfill no other purpose than to meet a possible move to change the place of trial.

2. THE ORAL CONTRACT WHICH IS THE SUBJECT OF THIS ACTION WAS MADE OR ENTERED INTO IN SAN DIEGO COUNTY AND THEREFORE VENUE IS PROPER IN SAN DIEGO COUNTY.

The declaration filed in opposition to Defendants' Motion reveals that the oral agreement which is the subject of this action was entered into in San Diego County by and between the President of the Defendant corporation and the President of the Plaintiff at the place of business of the Plaintiff, located at 7030 Convoy Court, San Diego, California, 92117.

The basic rule with respect to the place at which a contract is deemed made is set forth in the case of Bank of Yolo vs. Sperry Flower Company, (1903) 141 Cal. 314 at page 315 where the Court states as follows:

A contract is supposed to be made at some place, and the place where it becomes complete is the place where it is made. . . if the communications are oral. . . the contract should be deemed to have been made in the County where the offer of one is accepted by the other. . .

This rule is further stated in 2 Witken Cal. Procedure (2d ed.) Section 478 at page 1301 as follows:

The basic rule is that the contract is deemed made at the place where the last act necessary for its effectiveness is done.

Therefore, under the foregoing rules, it appears clear in this case that the last act necessary for the effectiveness of the oral contract herein would be the act of the offeree (Defendant herein) assenting to or accepting the offer of the offeror (Plaintiff herein). The declaration of Mr. Fogleman makes it clear that the last Act of the contract effectiveness, i.e. said Defendant's

ASARO & KEAGY
ATTORNETE AT LAW
304 KAJAM STREET
6AN DIGG. CALIFORNIA 92101
239-3861

St. Sterrings

 12 16

Mark Comments

25

48.00

...

できることがったい ないない

1

2 3

4

5

6 7

8

9 10

11

13

15

17

18

19

20

21

22 23

24 25

26

27

28

acceptance of Plaintiff's offer was accomplished in San Diego, California at the place of business of the Plaintiff.

Defendant would make it appear from what is contained in its Points and Authorities in Support of its Motion that the last act "necessary for the effectiveness of the contract" (Defendants Points and Authorities at page 5) is the payment by the Defendant corporation of the freight charges in Los Angeles County, California "thus finalizing and effectuating the contract at that location" (Defendants Points and Authorities at page 6).

As appears from the citation above quoted, Defendant's conception of the law with respect to the place where a contract is made or entered into for purposes of establishing venue in an action is inaccurate in that the last act necessary for the effectiveness of the contract herein is the acceptance of Plaintiff's offer by the Defendant which wad done at Plaintiff's place of business in San Diego and not the place at which Defendant paid the freight charges after the goods had been delivered to the Defendant.

DEFENDANT'S OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE SUBJECT 3. ORAL CONTRACT WERE REQUIRED TO BE PERFORMED IN SAN DIEGO COUNTY AND THEREFORE VENUE IS PROPER IN SAN DIEGO COUNTY.

Plaintiff submits that for the reasons set forth in Subsection (2) of its Points and Authorities, herein, Plaintiff has sustained its burden showing that venue is proper in San Diego County. Notwithstanding this however, there is a second basis upon which Plaintiff may bring its action in San Diego County in that a suit may also be brough where the subject contract "is to be performed".

under the subject oral contract were to be performed in San Diego County, Defendant's obligations were likewise to be performed in San, Diego County and that therefore the place of performance of the subject oral contract is in San Diego County. As appears from the declaration of Plaintiff on file herein, and the invoices attached thereto, the goods which were manufactured for the Defendant herein were delivered to said Defendant f.o.b. Plaintiff's factory in San Diego, California. Plaintiff submits that the invoices are evidence that its obligations under the contract were to be performed in San Diego County since delivery was to be made to Defendants at Plaintiff's place of business in San Diego County. As the Court stated in the case of Gallo vs. Boyle Manufacturing Co., Inc., (1939) 35 Cal. App.2d 168 at page 170:

The motion was heard upon the verified complaint and affidavit introduced by both parties. The complaint alleges that Defendant sold and delivered the drums to Plaintiffs f.o.b. Modesto, California. The purchase order in evidence contains the following language: "Please deliver to us via Santa Fe, f.o.b. Modesto, the following items. . . " as delivery of an article sold is an essential part of the contract and as the contract called for delivery in Stanislaus County, it would seem that the foregoing is ample evidence upon which the trial court could make a finding that the contract was to be performed in that County. "It is the duty of the seller to deliver the goods and that the buyer to accept and pay for them in accordance with the terms of the contract to sell or sale." (Civ. Code Sec. 1761.)

On the basis of the foregoing, it would appear clear that the place of performance of Plaintiff's obligations under the subject oral contract was San Diego, California.

ASARO & KEAGY
ATTOMET'S AT LAW
304 KALMA STREET
SAM DIEGO, CALLFORNIA 92101
239-3861

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27 28

-5-

Defendant's obligation under the subject contract was, of course, the payment of money to the Plaintiff for the goods sold and delivered to the Defendant corporation, however, it does not appear that the place of Defendants performance of said obligation was expressly stated. The rule under such circumtances for determining place of performance of Defendant corporation's obligation is set forth in 2 Witkin Cal. Procedure (2d ed.) Section 480 at page 1302:

The place of performance of the promissor's obligation to make payment under an ordinary contract is seldom expressly stated in the agreement. The Court must therefore seek the intention of the parties in the circumstances, aided by two theories: First, the place where the Plaintiff promissee is to perform (by delivering goods or rendering services, etc.) is a likely place for the intended counter performance (payment). Second, under CC 1489 an offer of performance may be made (in the absence of provisions to the contrary) at the place where the Plaintiff creditor (promissee) resides, or has his place of business, or where he may be found.

The declaration of the Plaintiff on file herein and the invoices attached thereto, show that the parties intended that Defendant corporation's obligation for the payment of money for the goods sold and delivered to the Defendant corporation was to be performed by delivering to the Plaintiff at its place of business, in San Diego County, payment within thirty days after delivery of goods.

The case of Blumer vs. Kirkman Corporation, (1952) 38 Cal.
2d 480, was an action wherein the Plaintiff, Blumer sued the Defendant, Kirkman, a corporation, to recover the purchase price of goods sold and delivered. The action was filed where Plaintiff resided in San Francisco, California and alleged

ASARO & KEAGY
ATTORNEYS AT LAW
304 KALMU STEET
A DIEGO, CALIFORNIA 92101

-6-

ASARO & KEAGY
ATTORNETS AT LAW
304 KALMA STREET
AN DIEGO. CALLFORNIA SEIGH

that said Plaintiff sold and delivered in Madera County to the Defendant certain quantities of fertilizer for an agreed amount. Plaintiff contended that payment was to be made to him for said goods at his San Francisco office. Defendant brought a motion for change of venue contending that the contract was made in Madera County and that therefore, the action should be brought in said County instead of San Francisco. The Plaintiff, however contended that Kirkman's obligation was to be performed in San Francisco and that therefore, the action was properly filed there. The Court of Appeals in affirming the trial Court's denial of Defendant's motion for change of venue stated at page 484, as follows:

The implied conclusion of the trial court also is sustained by viewing the circumstances in the light of pertinent Code. provisions (Rale v. Bohannon, supra; Bank of Yolo v. Sperry Flower Company, 141 Cal. 314, 316 (74 P. 855, 65 L.R.A. 90).) Section 1500 of the Civil Code, upon which the corporations rely, provides that an offer extinguishes an obligation for payment of money if designated additional steps are taken. It does not specify where the offer is to be made. That provision is found in Section 1489, and for the reasons stated in Hale v. Bohannon, supra, in the absence of any agreement to the contrary, it was the debtors' duty to pay Blumer in San Francisco or at lease to offer payment there.

In the case of Hamilton v. Kyle & Co., (1956) 139 Cal. App.

2d 766, the Plaintiff sought to recover sums allegedly due under an oral contract of employment as a salesman of Defendant's products. The action was filed by Plaintiff in Sacramento, California, the place at which Plaintiff was employed by Defendant. The affidavit and pleadings of parties disclosed that, although, Plaintiff was employed by Defendant in its Sacramento office, Defendant's principal place of business was located in Fresno County and that the oral contract was made in Los Angeles County. The Court of Appeals in upholding the trial Court's order denying Defendant's motion for change of venue stated as follows:

Whether or not Sacrament County, under the circumstances disclosed by the verified complaint and the affidavits of the parties, was one of the counties designated in the constitutional provision was a factual question for determination [1] It is the rule that under by the trial court. said constitutional provision, insofar as venue is concerned, where the breach complained of is failure to pay money due, the decisive factor is the place where payment is to be made (Hale v. Bohannon, 38 Cal. 2d 458, 466 [241 P.2d4]), and a determination of this question is one of fact to be resolved by the trial court. (Gallo v. Boyle Mfg. Co., Inc., 35 Cal. App.2d 168, 169 [94 P.2d 1010].) [2] is the further rule that in the absence of agreement or stipulation to the contrary, the place of performance in the payment of a debt is the place where the creditor resides or has his place of business. (38 Cal.2d 458, 467; Civ. Code, $51488 and 1489.)

In the instant case, since the declaration of the Plaintiff on file herein reveals that it was the intention of the parties that payment be made at Plaintiff's place of business in San Diego County. It is submitted by the Plaintiff herein that since the obligations of Defendant corporation were to be performed in San Diego County, venue is proper in San Diego County as the place where

CONCLUSION

On the basis of all of the foregoing, it is submitted by the Plaintiff that its declaration on file herein, together with the pleadings conclusively established that venue is proper in San Diego County for the reasons that the subject contract was made in San Diego County and Defendant's obligations under

ASARO & KEAGY
ATTORNEYS AT LAW
SO4 KLIAIN STREET
AN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA $1101
219-3261

世紀日本

1

2 3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

15

16 17

18

19

21

23

24

25

26 27

28

-8-

said contract were to be performed in San Diego County.

It is therefore, respectfully requested that this Court deny Defendant's motion for change in venue.

DATED: Queget 22, 1978

ASARO & KEAGY

By: Tatuck Olimstean
PATRICK J OLMSTEAN
Attorneys for Plaintiff

ABARO & KEAGY
ATTOMNEYS AT LAW
304 KALMA STREET
LAH DIEGO, CALIFORNIA 93101

The second secon